

I find it most annoying when I run to pick up the phone & the calls are usually ALWAYS either a telemarketer OR they're looking for the person who had our phone number previously. It's been 2 1/2 years now since we've had this number yet these people still call our number on a daily basis as early as 8:00AM Monday through Saturday!

Can't something be done about this form of harrassment?